

SOFTWARE FACT SHEET

WhereScape Red & 3D

|                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Product overview                                   | A comprehensive data discovery, data modelling and data warehouse & big data automation platform.                                                                                                        |
| WhereScape®                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| A/NZ sites                                         | 250 - 1000                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Appropriate for businesses of size (AU$ turnover) | Scalable from SME to the largest enterprise customers.                                                                                                                                                   |
| Product type                                       | Data governance and design, Data integration (ETL)                                                                                                                                                       |
| Key reference sites                                | Tesco, ASB, Auckland Council, ADHB, Abano Healthcare, Lotto, Fonterra, Xero, Macquarie University, Charles Darwin University, Australia Post.                                                            |
| Licencing options                                  | Priced by platform per developer per data warehouse.                                                                                                                                                     |
| Licence costs                                      | Please enquire                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Databases                                          | Microsoft SQL Server, Microsoft SQL Azure, SQL Analysis Services, Oracle, IBM DB2, IBM Netezza, Teradata, Microsoft Parallel, Pivotal Greenplum, Big Data (Hive)                                         |
| Applications                                       | SAP, Salesforce, Any ODBC/JDBC compliant database.                                                                                                                                                       |
| Operating system(s)                                | Windows, Linux.                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Connectivity                                       | ODBC, JDBC, OLEDB, XML.                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Security                                           | Database login, Active Directory, LDAP.                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Data discovery and governance                      | Meta data management, Data lineage, Data discovery, Data modelling                                                                                                                                       |
| Data integration                                   | Data warehouse automation, Create/change OLAP or tabular cubes, Workflow scheduling, Alerts and logging, Automation of ETL coding and OLAP cube creation, Big data (data lakes etc).                     |
| Reporting & visualisation                          | Not supported                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Predictive analytics/budgeting                     | Not supported                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Enterprise performance management                  | Not supported                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Other features/modules                             | Automated model conversation, Automated documentation                                                                                                                                                    |
| A/NZ Vendor contacts                               | WhereScape, Matt Bartley GM Sales & Marketing, +64 21 817 059                                                                                                                                            |
| A/NZ Partner contacts                              | NZ:Mindfull, Ben Schofield, Chief Sales Officer, +64 21 242 9498Montage, Tony Millar, CEO, +64 21 1902 571AU:MIP, Steve Hitchman, Group Managing Director, +61 411 874 113 |

Last updated on 25 October 2016